Draft Report on the Requirements and Facilities of the US Government for Foreign Intelligence Related to the National Security.

- REFERENCES:
- (A) AD/RR's memorandum dated 2 April 1951 "NSC 282"
  - (B) AAD/IC's memorandum dated 6 April 1951 "Proposed Terms of Reference for IAC Subcommittee on Requirements"
  - (C) "Draft Report to the National Security Council in Compliance with NSC 282" dated 1 April 1951.

1. The subject Draft Report constitutes an important contribution to the US intelligence organization. Obviously, the complete mobilization of all groups working on economic intelligence is not only a step of great importance in itself but one which is particularly welcomed [REDACTED] because it will 25X1A2g serve to provide improved guidance for covert collections.

2. In view of Reference (B), it is recommended that, insofar as economic intelligence requirements are concerned, the proposed Economic Intelligence Committee (Reference (C), p. 4, 10a.) be subordinated to or coordinated with the proposed IAC Subcommittee on Requirements.
